

Integration, Interaction and Institutions – Triple I

Turku, Finland, 30 September 2011

Subject: Invitation to the Triple I promoting seminar 'Managing International Mobility Programmes – Erasmus Mundus Action 2 Case Study', Ekaterinburg, 10 October 2011

Dear recipient,

It gives us a great pleasure to invite you to participate in 'Managing International Mobility Programmes – Erasmus Mundus Action 2 Case Study' seminar in Ekaterinburg on 10 October 2011. Please see the draft agenda of the seminar annexed to this letter.

The Consortium called Integration, Interaction and Institutions - Triple I, is a mobility scheme of nine European and ten Russian universities, financed by the European Community in the framework of the Erasmus Mundus Action 2, Strand 1. The Consortium, coordinated by the University of Turku in Finland, awards grants to students and staff of Russian and European Partner Universities as well as Russian students and academics from non-partner universities, for Russian professionals and public administration personnel outside the academic sphere, and e.g. for teachers in regional educational systems and the indigenous people of the Russian Federation. More information on the project: www.utu.fi/iii.

The seminar is aimed at Russian university vice rectors of international affairs, heads of international departments, and other university personnel interested in implementing international higher education mobility programmes. The objective is to promote and explore challenges of internationalisation at Russian higher education institutions by introducing the Erasmus Mundus programme to the universities in Russia.

The seminar is free of charge but participants will need to cover their travel and other related expenses. Register online by 7 October 2011:

We are also aiming to organize a seminar in Novosibirsk on 12 October, please see the above-mentioned website for more information.

We look forward to meeting you at the seminar in Ekaterinburg. For further information regarding the organization of the conference, please contact Ms Maria Guzikova (mariagu@mail.ru).

Yours sincerely,

Ms Irinja Paakkanen
Project Manager
